

CAROLINA FARMERS IN ANNUAL SESSION

Governor Welcomes Them to Raleigh and Urges Them to Co-operation for Their Benefit.

DISCUSS PRACTICAL TOPICS

Propagation of Fruit Trees, Improved Methods of Farming and Subjects Elaborated.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., August 28.—The fifth annual session of the North Carolina State Farmers' Convention assembled at the North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanical Arts this morning. President Ashley Horne, of Clayton, presiding, and Dr. Tait Butler, State Veterinarian, as secretary. The address of welcome was made by Governor R. B. Glenn, who reviewed the splendid part North Carolina is taking in the industrial progress of the country, emphasizing especially the importance and magnitude of the agricultural interests. He besought the farmers to take special interest in matters of education, industrial development, co-operation for keeping up the prices of farm products, and in the construction and maintenance of good roads. He "welcomed the farmers with all his soul and body," and declared his "love for everybody and desire to take them all in his arms and hug them, especially the women and children."

Candidates Present.
There was a further address of welcome by President George T. Winston, of the college, and the response was made by Hon. E. P. McRae, of Robeson county, who is a prominent candidate for the Democratic nomination as Commissioner of Agriculture. Mr. Ashley Horne, the president, too, is a prominent candidate for Governor, to succeed Governor Glenn.

Mr. McRae represented Robeson county in the last session of the Legislature, and has since announced his candidacy for the office of Commissioner of Agriculture to succeed Hon. S. L. Patterson.

He declared his faith in the farmers of the State and their ability to protect their own interests as well as to measure up to their full duty in shaping the affairs of State. Neither he or President Horne made any reference to their candidacy for office.

Practical Talks.

This afternoon and to-night the convention got down to regular work, namely, the study and discussion of methods of farming, the propagation of fruit trees was discussed by Prof. F. C. Reimer, and the general care of orchards by W. N. Hunt, State horticulturist. Wheat culture was treated by F. T. Meacham, superintendent of the Fidelity State test farm. Others joined in the general discussion of the subjects.

BRINGS MAN FROM OREGON FOR TRIAL ON FORGERY CHARGE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GREENSBORO, N. C., August 28.—A United States Deputy Marshal from Oregon arrived here yesterday bringing with him J. C. Brewer, arrested in Wilkes county, and found at Wilkes on the Federal Court, alleging that he forged pension checks of Mrs. Mary Webster, of Wilkes. Brewer was captured in Oregon and was placed in jail here in default of a $300 bond.

This morning his attorney, Major Charles M. Sullivan, obtained from Judge Boyd an order removing the case from Wilkes to Greensboro court, and it will be tried next week. An order was also obtained permitting Brewer to deposit cash in lieu of a bond. He then deposited $300 in cold cash and was released.

Yadkin Valley Fair.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., August 28.—The Yadkin Valley Fair Association, recently organized at this place, has issued an elaborate catalogue descriptive of the fair to be given here October 29th to 31st, inclusive. The first phase of industrial progress has been given close attention, and the opening fair for Rowan promises to be a big success. Large and attractive grounds are being prepared for the occasion. Capable managers have been named for each department, who will see that the numerous exhibits are properly made.

Labor Day Celebration.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., August 28.—Extensive preparations have been made for the celebration of Labor Day here next Monday, when a score or more of the various union organizations, from Salisbury and Spencer will join in a big demonstration, giving a grand parade as the opening feature. A number of handball prizes are offered to the successful contestants in the various games and tournament contests. Baseball and other sports have been arranged for, and a large number of visitors are expected.

Beginning of Great Building

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., August 28.—The accompanying cut shows the progress of work on the temple of the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Masons at Raleigh. The building is of concrete, reinforced with corrugated steel bars. It is to be seven stories, fireproof, costing $125,000. The outer wall will be of brick and Indiana stone. The picture shows the laying of the first concrete floor in progress; also the shaft of the conveyor, lifting the mixed cement from the basement, where the huge mixer is located. The system of construction is entirely novel in North Carolina, being the Johnson system. The contractors are the Carolina Construction Company, of Greensboro, and Charles McMillen, of Wilmington, is the designing and supervising architect.

RICHMOND MAN BUYS COTTON MILL

Whetstone Property Knocked Out to Mr. John M. Miller, of This City.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTE, N. C., August 28.—The Whetstone and Vermont Cotton Mills, at Bessemer City, were to-day sold under the hammer by order of the court at Bessemer City.

The Whetstone Mill was bought by Mr. John M. Miller, of Richmond, Va., at the upset price of $15,000, and the Vermont Mill to Mr. J. H. Mayes, of Charlotte, for $50,000.

According to the terms of sale these bids will remain open for thirty days in order to get an advance of 10 per cent. in accordance with the order of the court. The bidding was spirited and many cotton mill men from around this section attended the sale. The Whetstone Mill manufactures table damask and has 48 broad looms. The Vermont Mill makes heavy shirting and has 56 looms and 5,000 ring spindles, employing 1,000 operatives. Mr. L. L. Jenkins has served in the capacity of receiver for the mills since they went into bankruptcy several months ago. It is understood that Mr. Mayes will continue the operation of the Vermont Mill, but the disposition of Mr. Miller's property could not be learned.

NOT ALLOW COUNSEL TO EXAMINE RECORD

So Declare Counsel for Southern in Petition Regarding Setting of Case.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., August 28.—In the Supreme Court this morning former Governor Aycock, as counsel for the State, made a motion that the appeal of the Southern Railway Company from the $30,000 fine imposed in Wake court by Judge Long for violation of the 2-1-4 cent passenger rate act be set for a hearing some time during the week beginning September 10th, this motion being declared to carry out an agreement made with counsel for the Southern that the case be hurried through its hearings to the United States Supreme Court. On the other hand, Colonel W. B. Rodman and James H. Poy, representing the Southern Railway Company, appeared and filed a certiorari, in which the demand is made that the record of the case, as sent up from the clerk of the Wake court, be verified with the official stenographic record of the case before the hearing before the Supreme Court is had, and that the case be set for argument on September 17th, the records to be verified in the meantime. The petition for the writ of certiorari is a document of ten pages, and reviews the history of the case, and charges that the record has been made up and certified to the Supreme Court without the counsel for the Southern being allowed the opportunity promised to examine and verify it. The Supreme Court took the whole matter under advisement.

NOT USE CITY MONEY FOR ENTERTAINMENT

Member of Norfolk Council Gets Injunction—No Right to Employ City Funds.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., August 28.—The expenditure of the $5,000 voted by the City Council and Board of Aldermen for the entertainment of several large conventions to meet here before the exposition closes has been held up by an injunction granted to-day by Judge Hatcher, on motion of George L. Arps, member of the Council from the Sixth Ward. The injunction was obtained on the ground that the city is forbidden by law to make such appropriations. All city officials and Councilmen and Aldermen who would have anything to do with the release of the money are enjoined from doing it. When notice of the injunction was served on Mayor Riddick that official immediately turned it over to City Attorney James F. Duncan. The Mayor had not approved the ordinance making the appropriation when the notice was served on him, and probably would have permitted it to become a law without his signature. The injunction is returnable to the October term of the court, but a dissolution might be asked for at any time. City Attorney Duncan said that at attention that he would await instructions from the Council and Board of Aldermen before taking any action in the case.

JUDGE WATSON HAS TO LEAVE BENCH FOR ILLNESS.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
AMERICA, VA., August 28.—Though quite indisposed Judge Walter A. Watson held court here Monday. Feeling worse Tuesday morning he left for his old home in Nottingham on the morning train, hoping to be back and reopen court to-day, but he did not come, and it is feared he is worse. Mr. Herbert F. Green, deputy treasurer of the county, has returned from an extended pleasure trip to New York and other Northern points.

Miss Sadie Southall, who for the past two seasons won a Times-Dispatch outing trip, has just returned from a trip to the White Sulphur and the Hot Springs. She was accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Cora Motley. Pastor T. O. Edwards is conducting a revival services day and night in the Methodist Church here. This is the second week of the services, and there have been a number of professions. He has also conducted successful meetings at Moores and Tabernacle churches.
